

NOTICE

South Carolina law prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol.

A person who is in violation of this law is subject to the following penalties:

First Offense: Must be fined up to $400 and/or imprisonment up to 30 days and suspension of your driver's license for 6 months.

Second Offense: Must be fined $2,100 to $5,100 and imprisonment from 5 days to 1 year and suspension of your driver's license for 1 year.

Third Offense: Must be fined $3,800 to $6,300 and imprisonment from 60 days to 3 years and suspension of your driver's license for 2 years. If the third offense occurs within 5 years of the first offense, your driver's license is suspended for 4 years. If the third or subsequent offense occurs within 10 years of the first offense, the vehicle used must be confiscated.

Fourth Offense: Imprisonment from 1 to 5 years and permanent revocation of your driver's license.
